EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMAL REQUEST
Personal Statement

As a part of the process of applying for an Emotional Support Animal (ESA) approval, Washington State University's Department of Housing and Residence Life (HRL), in collaboration with the Access Center, requires the applicant to address in a Personal Statement the following:

1. The ways in which their medical condition impacts their functioning, especially in relation to living in university housing;
2. How an animal will lessen the impacts of their medical condition in their daily life;
3. A brief description of the animal, including type, breed, gender, approximate weight, color(s)/marking(s), and its name.

HRL will also gladly hold onto vaccination/health documentation, as well as any training documentation the animal has received, however it is not necessary and does not affect the approval process.
